Little League Tilt Leaves Dad Winded

By MARY and JACK WEBB

Recent house guests of Doug and Lorraine Moir's, 249 Via la Circula, were Agnes and George Moir, his mother and father, who reside in Long Island, N. Y. Their three-week visit here was one of sightseeing and visiting. The Moirs report that the parents spent much time at the Portuguese Bend Club, where the Moirs have membership. Prime reasons for the visit included their wish to see young Maureen Moir, age 2, with whom they had never visited. Maureen, incidentally, is the first girl born in the Moir clan for some 47 years, and something of a wonderment to the clan.

Well, sir, those of you who have not as yet seen our Little League in action missed another great game recently when the Torrance Builders Giants faced the Kiwanis Dodgers and defeated them 3 to 1 in a real thriller. Proof? How many of you have ever seen a genuine, A-1, no holds barred triple play? Not many, or we miss our fool-proof guess. The Giants delivered just such a play in the last half of the last inning, no less. What better time to tell you just how it happened. With a man on first and another on second, the batter hit a grounder to Giants' third sacker, Ernie Iwata. Disposing of the Dodger running for third, Ernie flipped the ball to Mike Scott who finished off the Dodger sprinting for second. Meanwhile, the batter having rounded first started for second, saw he was too late, tried to get back to first. Mike hurled the ball to first sacker Johnny Mewborn who tabbed the batter for the third out. A neat though not often repeated trick. And so it was three outs just like that, one, two, three—and the Dodgers bid for a win stopped cold. Winning pitcher was Paul Moir, satcher Butch Cooper. Paul, incidentally, pitched a one-hitter in this thriller. Now if the report of this doesn't spur you baseball fans to visit our Little League ball park, I can't say what will. You'll find the park resting just off the Pacific Coast Hwy. at Crenshaw Blvd. Plan to visit them Sunday when a double-header will whet your baseball appetite.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Selleck, 135 Calle de Andalucia, on July 23, was their first son, and second child, whom they have named Dan Bernard. Young Dan met the world at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, where he weighed in at 6 lbs., 12 oz. He is preceded by his sister, Sherrill Jean, 4 1/2 years old. Mrs. Selleck and the baby, both at home now, are in fine health.

Along the lines of births, let us report the arrival of George Lee Chittick, latest addition at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Law, and Mrs. J. Mullen, all of Riviera. Girl Scouts from Rioles, George Lee, born July 13 at Torrance Memorial Hospital, weighed into the world at 8 lbs., 1/2 oz. Both mother and daughter are doing fine. George Lee is preceded by sister Christine, 7 1/2 years old.

If you wondered where we were last week, let us report now that we just returned from a fine eight-day vacation at Crestline, where we found the weather and environment just wonderful, thank you. Luckily, we managed to snag a private 3-bedroom cabin which provided for complete comfort and conveniences. Days on the beach at Lake Gregory sunning and swimming will be long remembered, and the whole Webb clan is now nicely tanned and rested.

New honors come to Riviera as one of its residents is chosen to represent his industry at a North American conference. Such honor has come to Marvin E. Jones, 108 Via Estrella, who was chosen last week to represent the State Pipe Trades Apprentices at the first North American Conference on Apprenticeship, to be held Aug. 2 to 9 at San Diego.

Jones is a new resident of Riviera, having moved in recently together with wife Elizabeth and four children.

Bonnie Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Baldwin, 139 Paseo de Granada, spent a 10-day vacation at Idyllwild this month, where she was the guest of the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Niemoeller. The ten days were filled with riding, fishing, swimming and boating with the company of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Niemoeller and their daughter, Michele, of 117 Paseo de Granada.

We're happy to report the complete success of the Catholic Daughters No. 1344 breakfast held last Sunday morning at St. James Church hall. Over 450 persons enjoyed a shopping breakfast of orange juice, pancakes, bacon, milk, and coffee and, of course, syrup. Local Riviera members of the Catholic Daughters labored long to make this breakfast the success it was; principal difficulty of supplying bacon was solved when Jack Veltman, also of Riviera, and Jim Mays, who head up the Frontier Market and its meat department, came through with a donation of sixty pounds of the precious stuff. Mrs. Catherine Peters and Mrs. Janice Zens, of Riviera, headed up the local committees.

Mrs. Emil A. Huskamp, 118 Paseo de Granada, Girl Scout leader of Troop No. 119 of Riviera, took the troop for a 3-day holiday this month to the Girl Scouts house in Newport Beach. The Girl Scouts enjoyed swimming, yachting, cooking out and other activities during their stay. Mothers accompanying the Riviera troop included Mrs. Thorsen Burman, Mrs. Durwood of Riviera, Girl Scouts from Rioles, Lynn Burman, Ann Davis, Joelyn Ferrel, Sue Dorsett, Jean Huskamp, Sandra Kratzer, Joyce Law, Adele Mullen, Ann Palmer, Lynn Sattler, Sherrill Smith, and Ada Dot Hayes. Cathy Davis, 8-year-old sister of Ann Davis, accompanied the Girl Scouts on this outing.

Off on a circling tour of the northwest with an eventual stop at Atchinson, Kans., is Bob Brockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brockett Sr. of 233 Via Alameda. He is with his grandmother, Mrs. Marjorie Brockett, who will accompany him up through Northern California, Portland, Seattle, Yellowstone Park, and Vancouver, B. C. on their way to her home in Atchinson. Young Bob will stay in Kansas 'til September and then fly home in time for school.

Memo from South Bay Club of Republican Women points up their rummage sale coming up in September. They ask that all women donating items for the sale must turn them in by August 4. Books, jewelry, clothes, coats, old shoes, etc., are all welcome as items to be put into the sale. Any such may be left with Mrs. Don Whitney, 509 Calle de Arboles, or Mrs. Frank E. Booth, 106 Via Monte d'Oro, before that date.

Cost of Filing Declaration of Homestead

The cost of filing the declaration of homestead depends upon the number of pages in the document. The average fee is about $1.75.

Where to Get the Form

The approved, printed legal form for declaration of homestead can be bought from any large stationery store for a few cents. Generally, if you give the correct legal description of your property, you do not need a lawyer, but to be safe, consult one. But I recommend asking him the fee in advance. If the lawyer merely has his clerk fill out the form, he should not charge more than ten dollars, although some will ask more. If he is clever, he will charge only five or ten dollars as a good will act, trusting that you will bring him more business later. At this low rate, you must take the document to the County Recorder yourself.

Statutes. An exemption of not more than $12,500 in actual cash value, over and above all liens and encumbrances "at the time of a levy or execution" is allowed the head of the family.

Changes in Amount of Homestead Exemption
